

Kevin B. Duncan

President

Middlesex County Building &
Construction Trades Council

Kevin B. Duncan has been a loyal member of the International Union of Bricklayers and Allied Craftworkers for Thirty-nine years. Born and raised in New Jersey, Kevin Graduated from Middletown High School in 1973. Afterward, he attended Brookdale Community College where obtained an Associate's Degree in Business Administration.

Kevin joined former BAC Local #8 as an Improver Apprentice in 1980 and became a Journeyman in 1982. In 1983, he became Local #8's Financial Secretary. He held that position until 1992 when the International Union merged all the Local Unions of New Jersey into three Locals statewide.

In 2001, Kevin became a Field Representative for BAC Local #5 and holds that position to this day. He has served as Vice President, Recording Secretary, and is now President of the International Union of Bricklayers and Allied Craftworkers Administrative District Council of New Jersey Local #5. He also sits on the Executive Board of the ADC and is a Trustee to the BAC Administrative District Council of NJ Locals 4&5 New Jersey State Health Plan. He is a Trustee for the Local #5 Pension Fund, the New Jersey Apprentice Training Fund and is on the Labor and Management Committee.

Kevin has kept very active in the labor movement during his tenure. In 2004, he became Secretary of the Middlesex County Building & Construction Trades Council AFL-CIO and served at the position until September 2010. He then assumed the position of President, which he continues to hold today. He has also held the positions of Recording Secretary and Treasurer of the Middlesex and Somerset Counties AFL-CIO Central Labor Council.

Kevin resides in Fair Haven with his lovely wife of 37 years, Penny. He has three grown daughters, Kimberly, Jillian and Stephanie. He enjoys spending time on the golf course and on the beach of the beautiful New Jersey Shore.
