- Members of the public must press the raise hand icon to virtually raise their hand or if dialed in by telephone, must press *9 to virtually raise their hand to speak. When your hand is raised, you will be placed in the queue, or virtual line, to speak during the public portion.
- The moderator will ask participants with raised hands to unmute themselves. When this happens, the phone operator will instruct the participant to either click the unmute icon or to press *6 to unmute themselves, if joined by telephone.
- You will know when you have been unmuted, and it is time to speak when you hear the operator say, “You are unmuted.”
- When a participant either yields their time or are told their allocated 5 minutes are up, they will be placed on mute by the moderator.

Alternatively, members of the public who are unable to attend or who do not have the means to participate in the teleconference, may still participate in the public meetings by submitting public comments in advance of the public meeting, by email or in a written letter form to the Middlesex County Office of Planning at planning@co.middlesex.nj.us.
